

Presents their first ever:

"AGILITY DREAMS IN THE DESERT"

Agility camp 2012 - Bend, Oregon - June 22, 23, and 24th

Make your agility dreams come true in 2012! Refine your front cross and rear cross skills, learn how proper footwork can make your communication with your dog even more crystal clear, find out how proper stretching and conditioning your dog can prevent injuries and increase speed on course, find better ways to analyze a course, increase your dog's understanding of 270's and 180's, learn how to "gamble" with better distance skills, and gain better serpentine handling skills for the faster/shorter dogs' path. All subjects will be tailored to the level of the working group so no one will feel over or under challenged.

Instructors:

MOE STRENFEL- 2012 World Agility Open US Team member, owner of Momentum Dog Sports in San Jose California

SANDY ROGERS- 2011 and 2012 WAO US Team member, owner of ACE Dog Sports in San Francisco California

DR. ZIJI SCOTT- a Doctor of Chiropractic, Licensed Acupuncturist, Board Certified Animal Chiropractor, and Diplomat Neurology Certified Massage Therapist

Qualifications: Camp is open to all levels of dog handler teams! From teams just finishing up foundation skills to those teams competing at the Masters level. Dogs must be non-aggressive to people and other animals.

Format: Two educational sessions per day. Each session is 3.5 hours long. All groups will work with all instructors at least once. With a 1 hour lunch break each day. Working groups are limited to 10 teams or less. Daily lunches and camp t-shirts will be provided.

Cost: Working spots are $450. Auditing spots are $50 per day. Working auditor spots are limited - contact Stephanie Morris for more information.
